FACTION

"Are you listening to me, Trina?" asks Rosalind.

Pep Rally Band

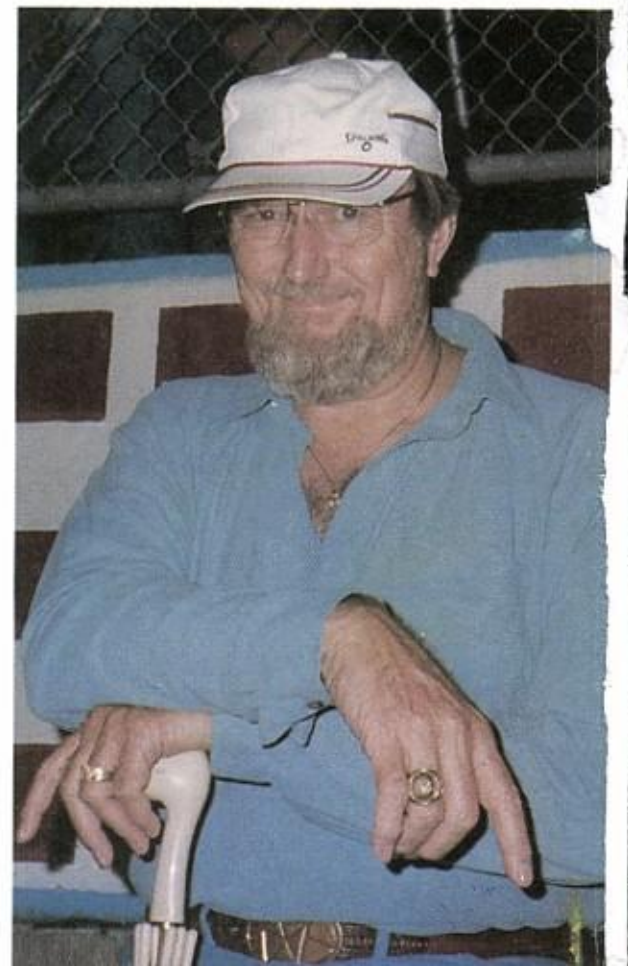

Care to join John for a glass of milk?

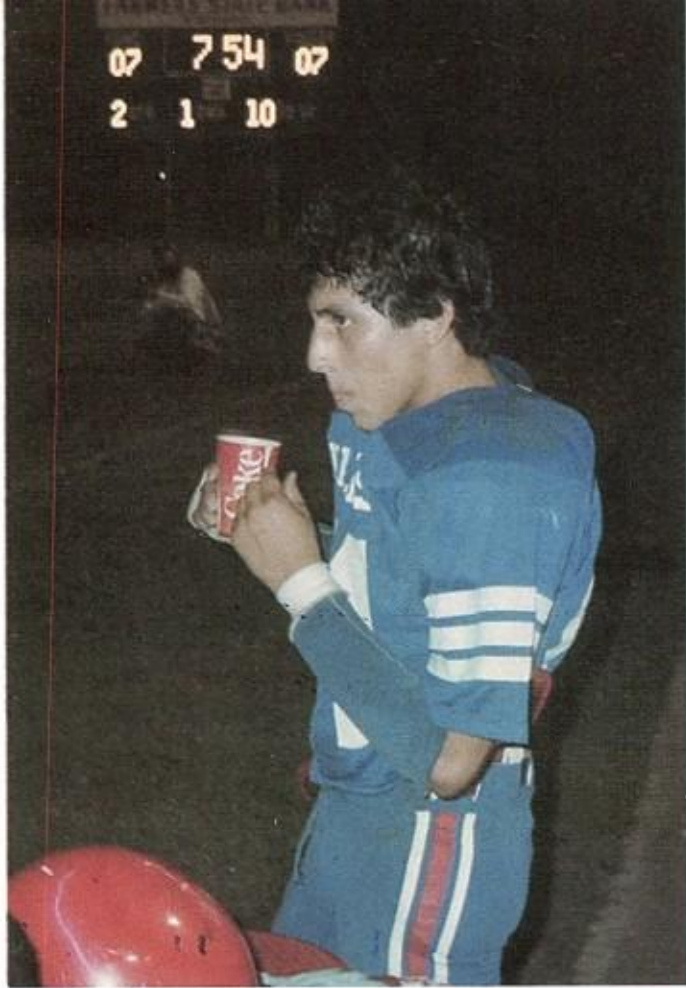

Lets party all night.

Are you ready to rumble? Eddie, Mark, Kevin, Allen, Charles, Robert and Chris.
Right: Dr. Jackson enjoys the game.

Above: Tracy Hutchins, "She twirled with Spirit."
Principal Davis, alias Kenny Rogers, is under control.

J.V.
Cheerleaders really have pride!

Eddie and Willie show perfection in practice.

Danny, Bunny, David, Vivian, kick up their heels to the Cotton Eyed Joe!

Allison Hill, Vincent Winn, and Kay Broady, are making their way to class.

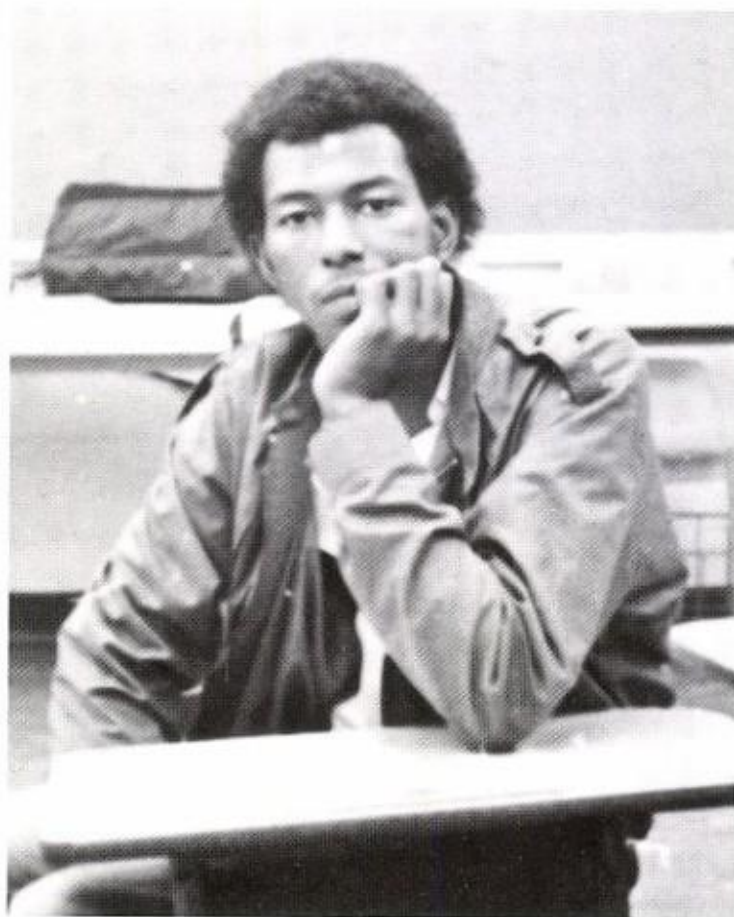

Tracy Hutchins and Tammy Lemos listen to instructions from Coach Donna Schimdt.

Mark Calip was cooling it out in the library.

Jimmy Simpson jumps high to score high!

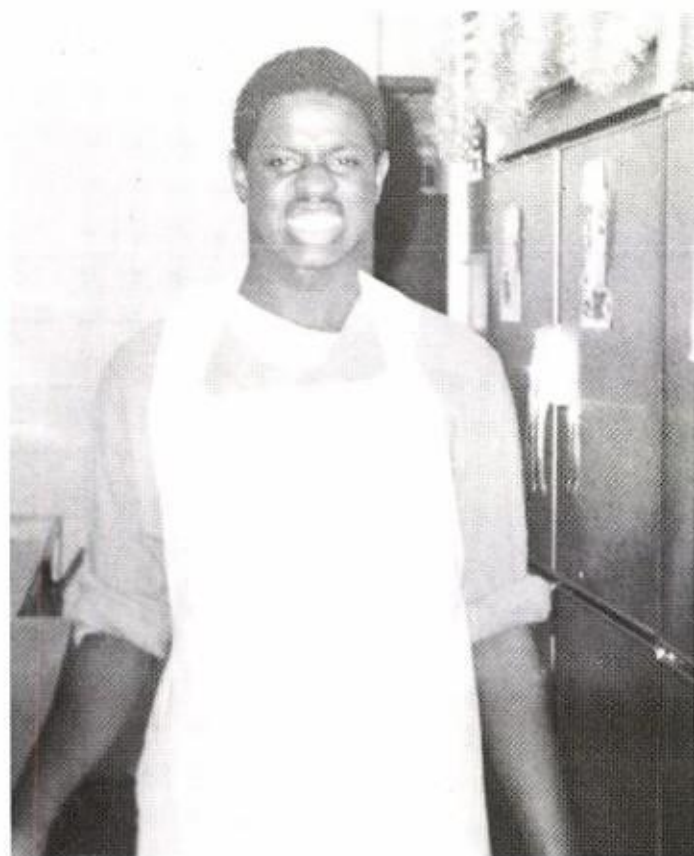

Frank Lacey says, "O.K. get this over with. It's not every day when a person gets a break in journalism."

Mr. Buchanan, what's so funny?

Right: Seniors do a little measuring behind the football stands.
Right: Tony Olivarez takes a mug for the cameraman. "I Knew I should have gone to bed earlier."

Jan gives a hardy smile as the Christmas vacation nears

Norma DeLeon, Keith Yetman, Robert Barley, Sonja Scott, Renee Alexander, and Tammie Hall, are hard at work.

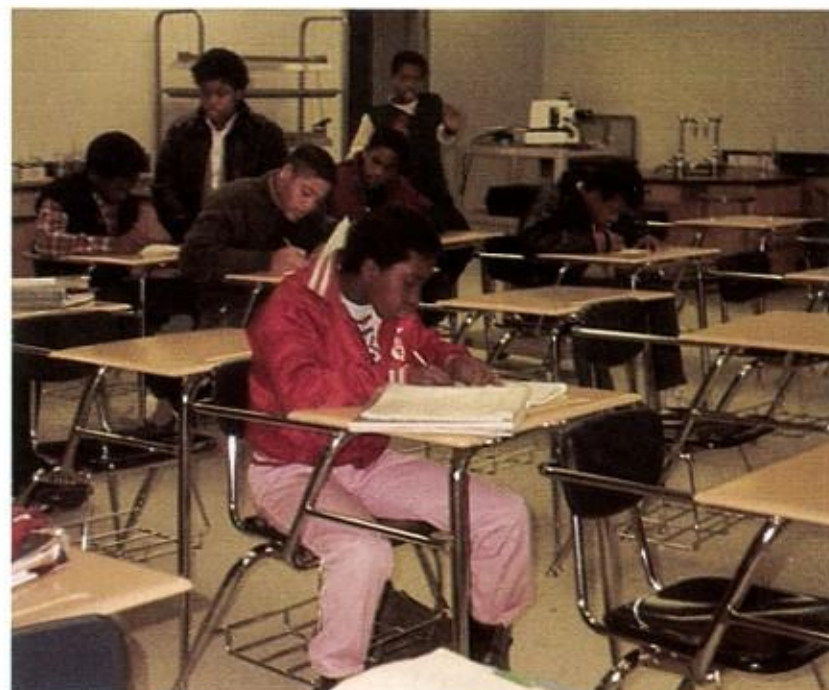

The ring turning tradition lives on at Royal H.S. as Marie gives Meagan's ring a spin.

"Way to go Falcons!"

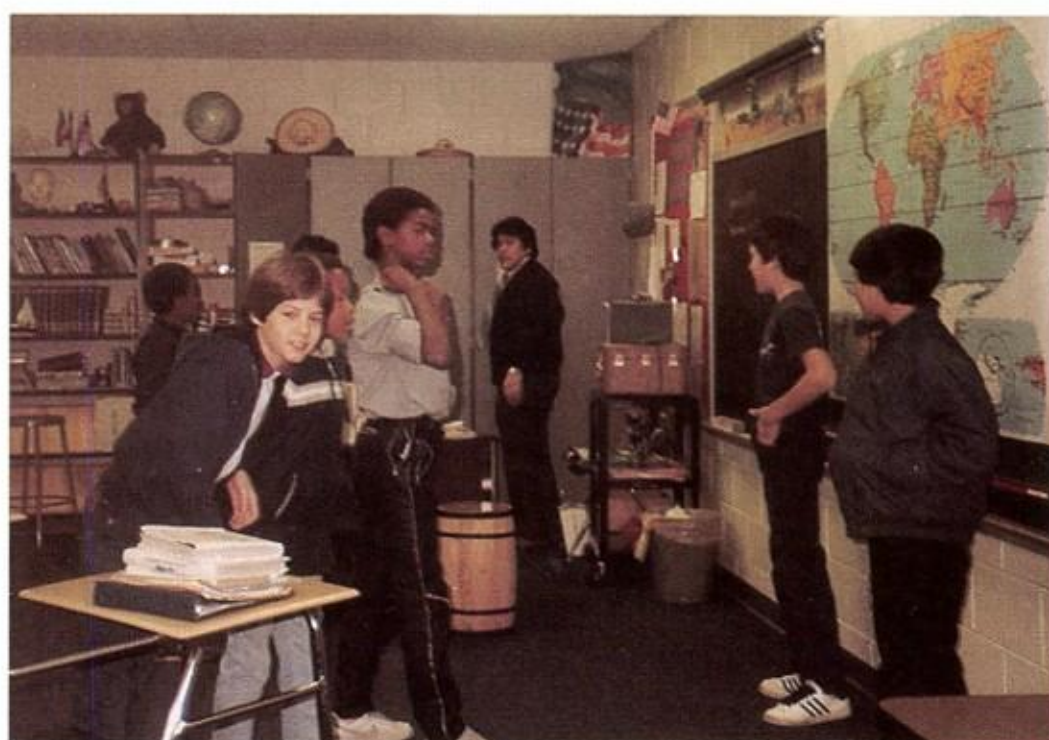

Nicole and Dennis attempt an experiment dancing while in science.

Middle school students rush to finish their assignments.

Lisa Patrick and Juan Jimenez enjoy their five minute break between classes.

Eric Green demonstrates his boxing form to history classmates.

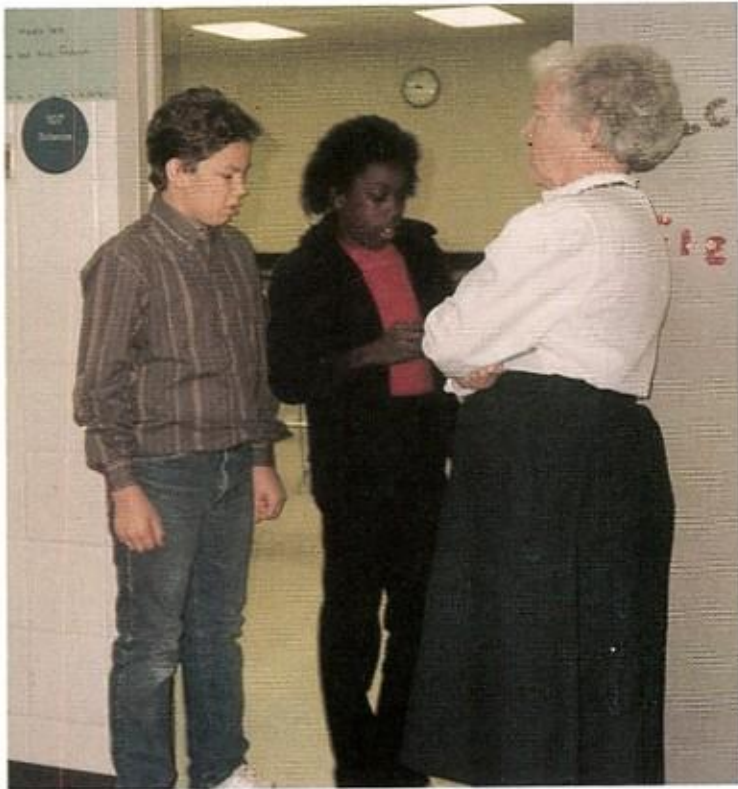

Kristen and Christy visit each other during break.

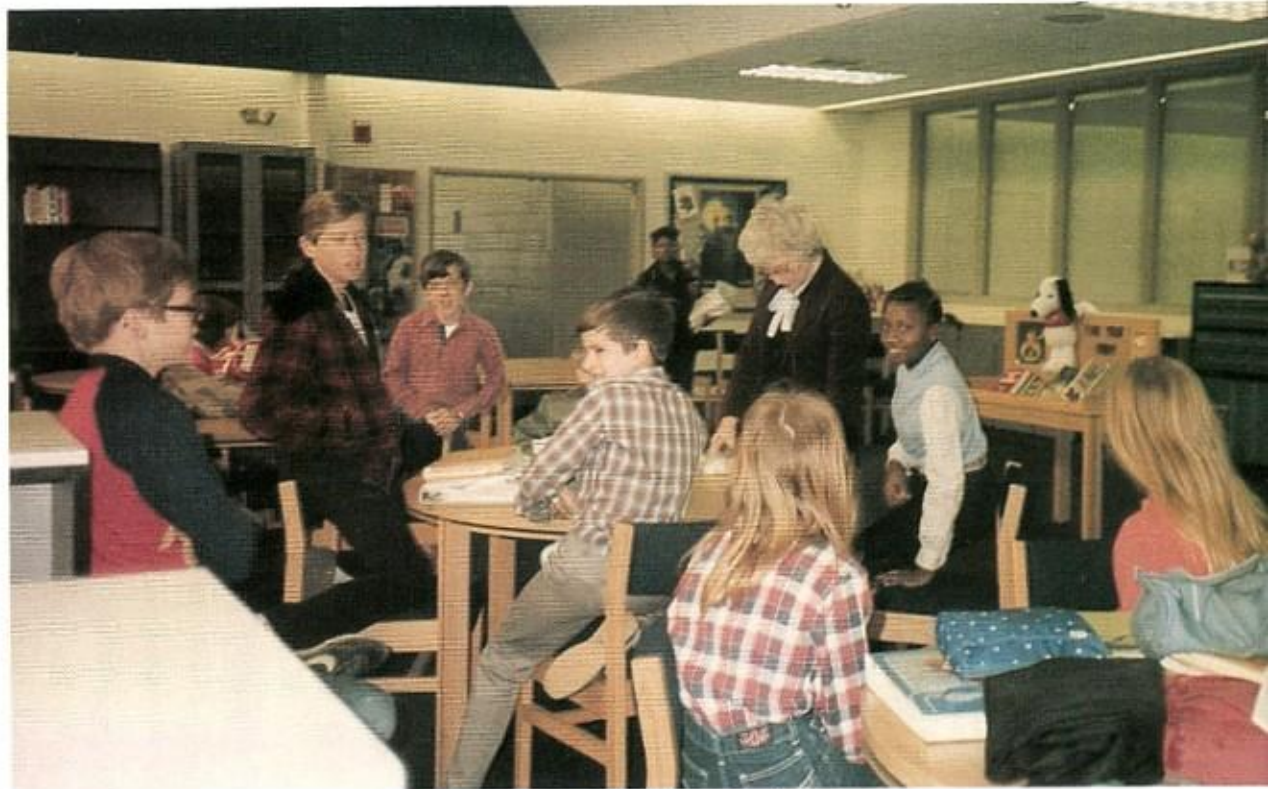

"Turn around Andre," says Ms. Diaz.

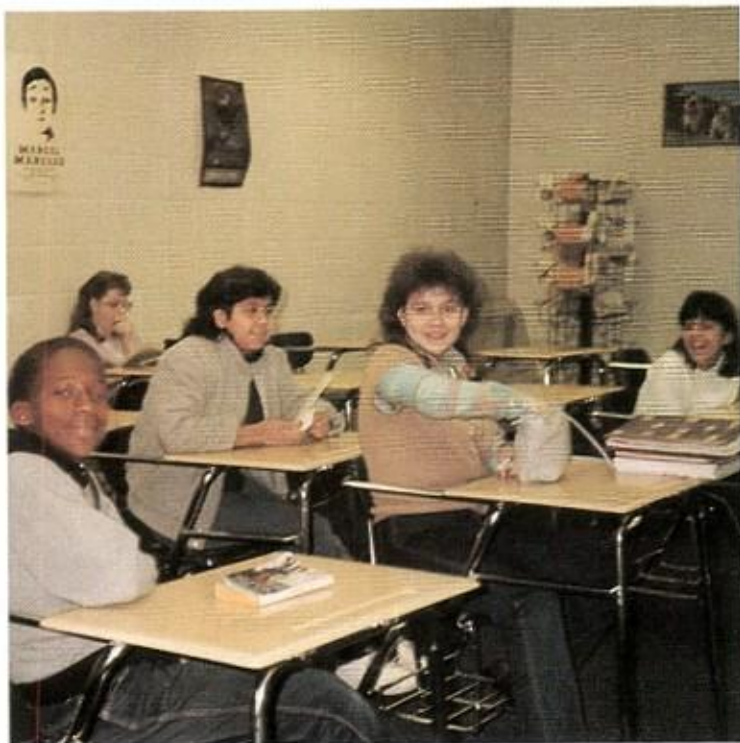

Alex Davila wonders, "Where did I leave my notebook"?

Chad Moore and Shad Shadrix listen intently to their teacher's instructions.

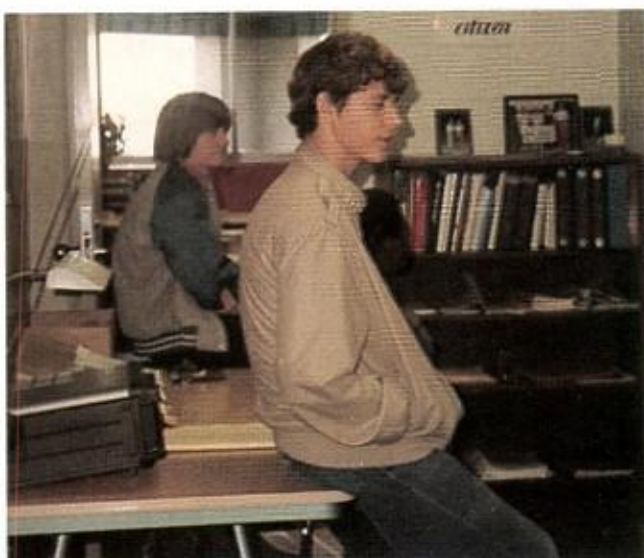

Mrs. Kitzman checks over her students' papers.

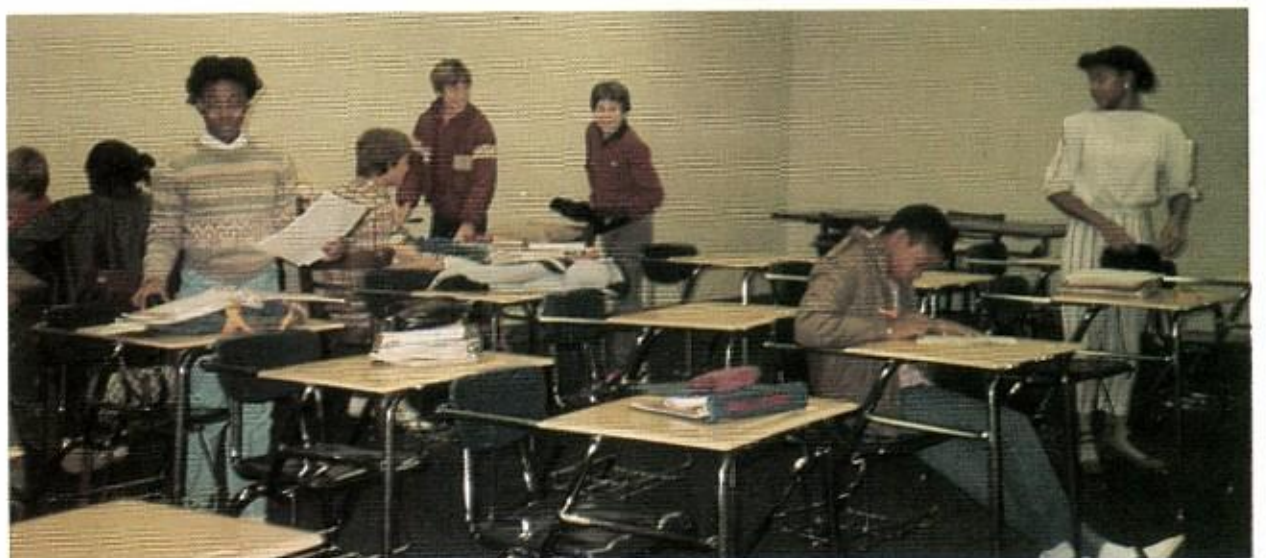

Kids will play when the teacher is in the hall.

The weekend is here!

Robert Bell patiently waits for the bell to ring.

It can be a pain getting ready to go to the next class.

Us bad? No way!

Carina Mata wishes she was back in Kindergarten.

Below: Mrs. Burrow is always on the move.

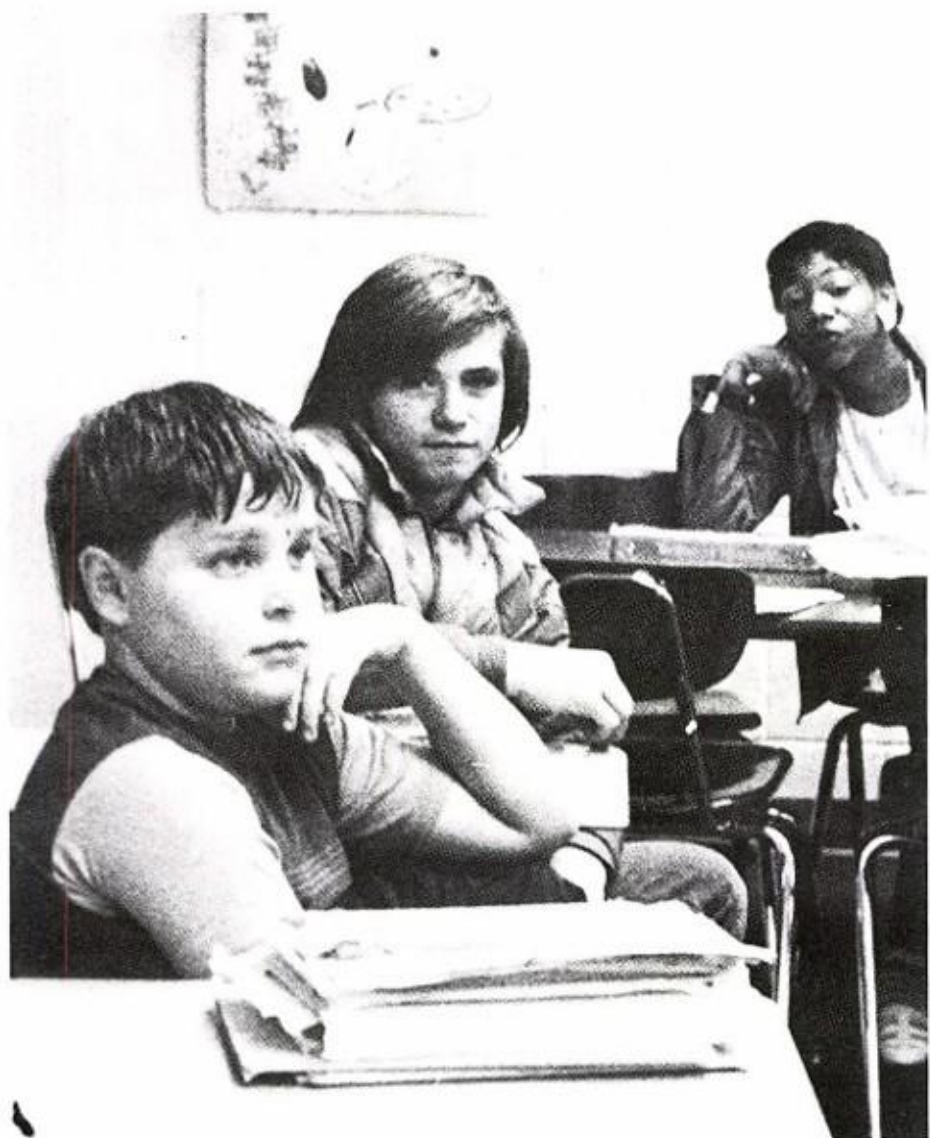

Burdy Busby and Ida Jones say, "Lets pretend we're working".

Well, I have nothing better to do!

Below: Anybody have something fun to do?

Left: Jariat says, "Why Me?"

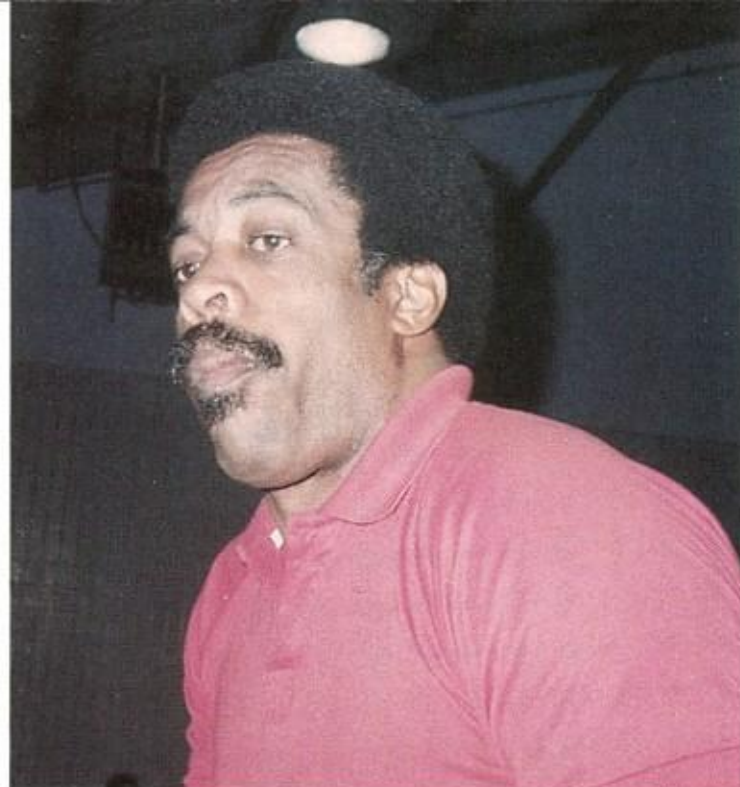

Below: Why look so confused?

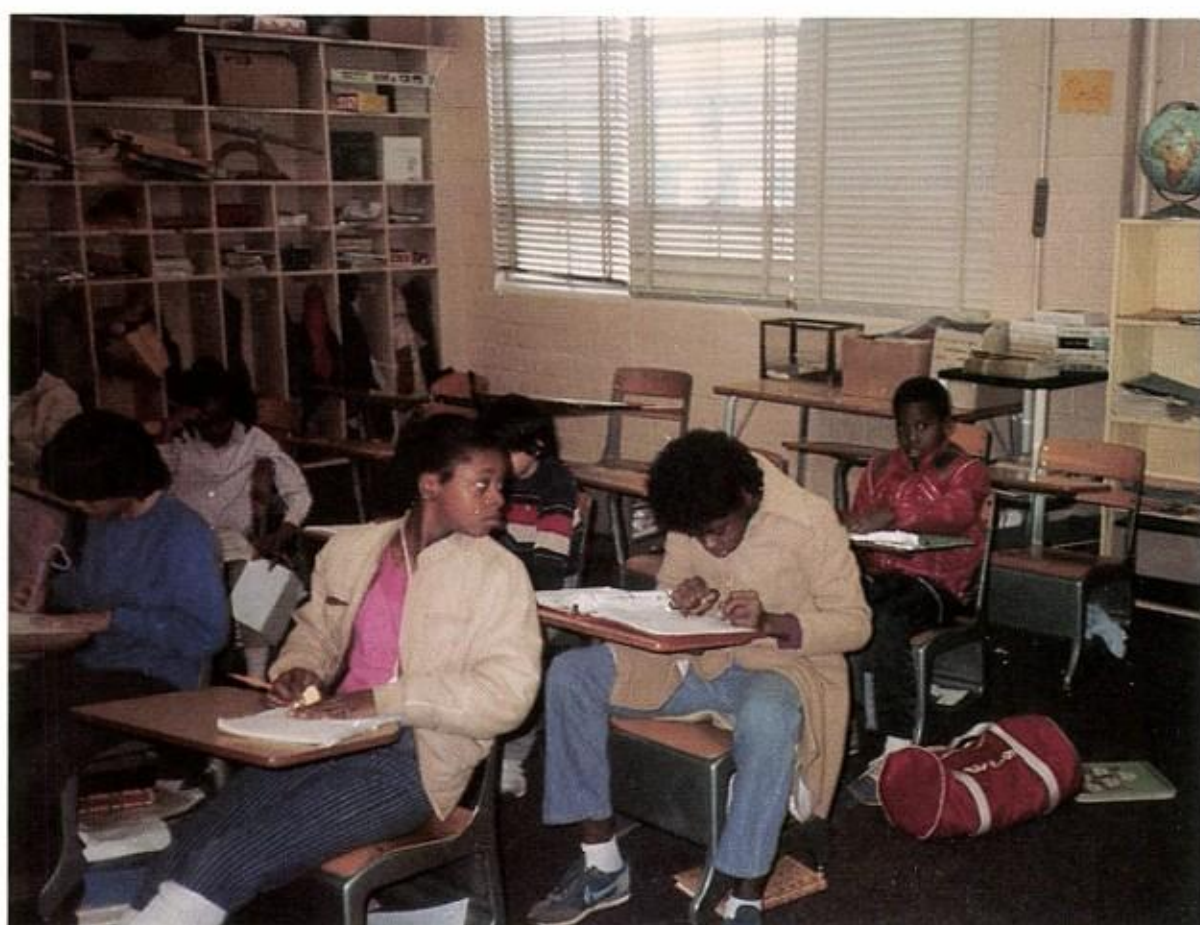

Above: Chris Hall and Eric Hanson say, "Why so much light, man?"
Right: Me unconcerned? You got it!

Lorena Salas and Brad Pranschke are hard at work.
Right: Coach Williams
"What a Coach!"

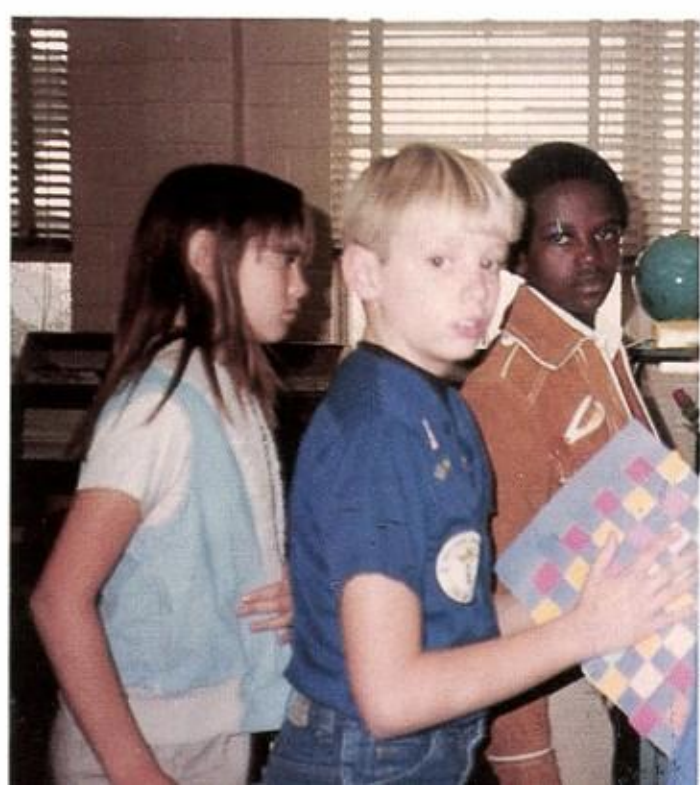

Adriene Yoon, Michelle Bailey and Hosea Holmes are in deep concentration.

Shelia Hall asks Mary Brandyberg "Are you finished yet?"

Good, "The day is almost over!" says Michelle Cullins.

Thea Smith says "No not me!"

Mary Clemons checks her backpack before leaving school.

Left: Students at the Intermediate School find education a fulfilling experience.
Right: "Another day, another class" thinks Monica Hancock.

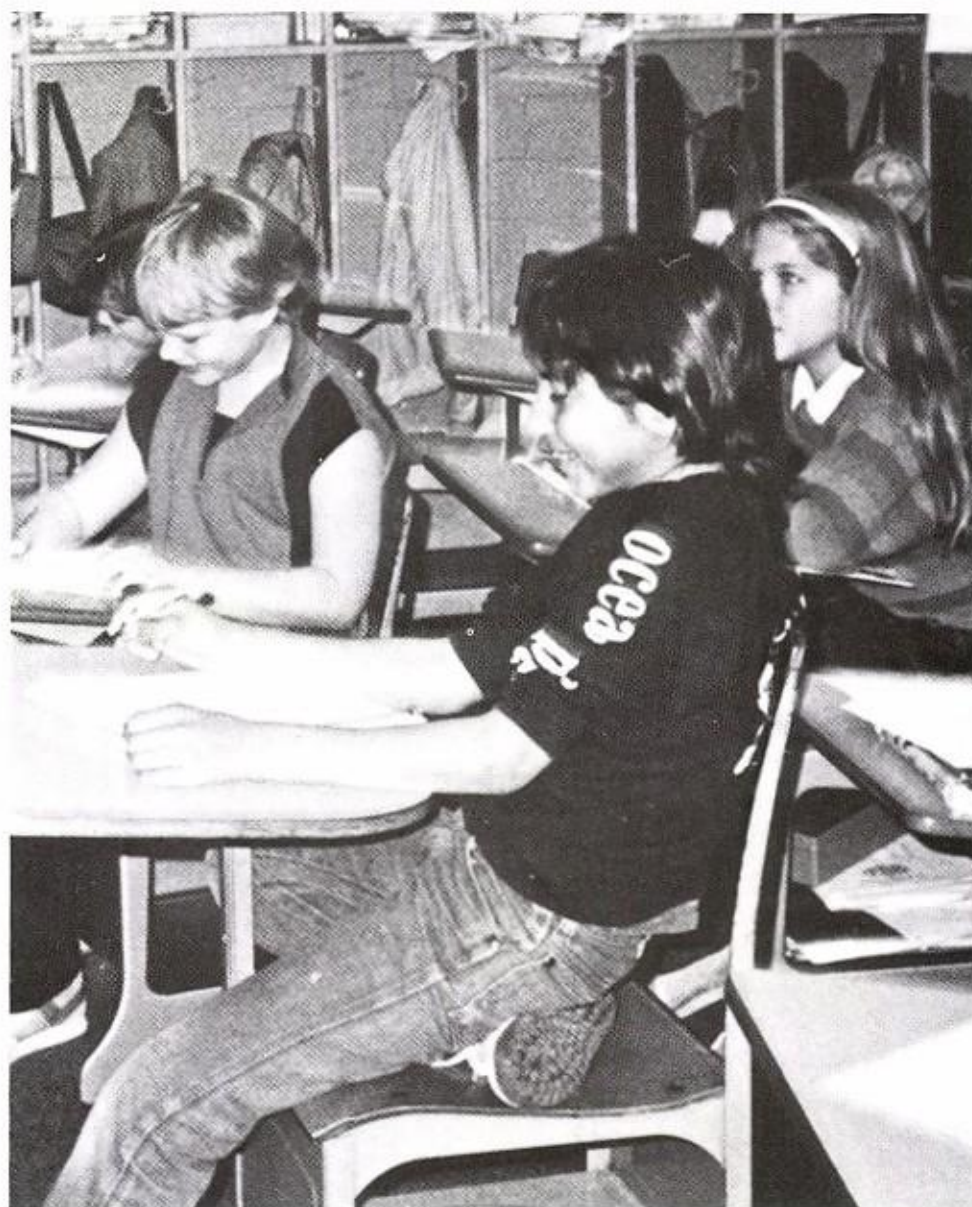

Left: Ursula Leonard and Chris Floeck say "Hey Ho! Lets Go!"
Right: "Will this be fun or not" asks Timothy Chaney.

Kelly Hoke and Yolanda Loza listen for more directions.

Right: Mrs. Russo helps Ellen Griffin while Cecilia Salazar finishes a problem on the board.

Left: Brad Pranschke and Steven Downum wonder if there is ever an end to all this work.

Below: Misty Turner plans to use her recess effectively.

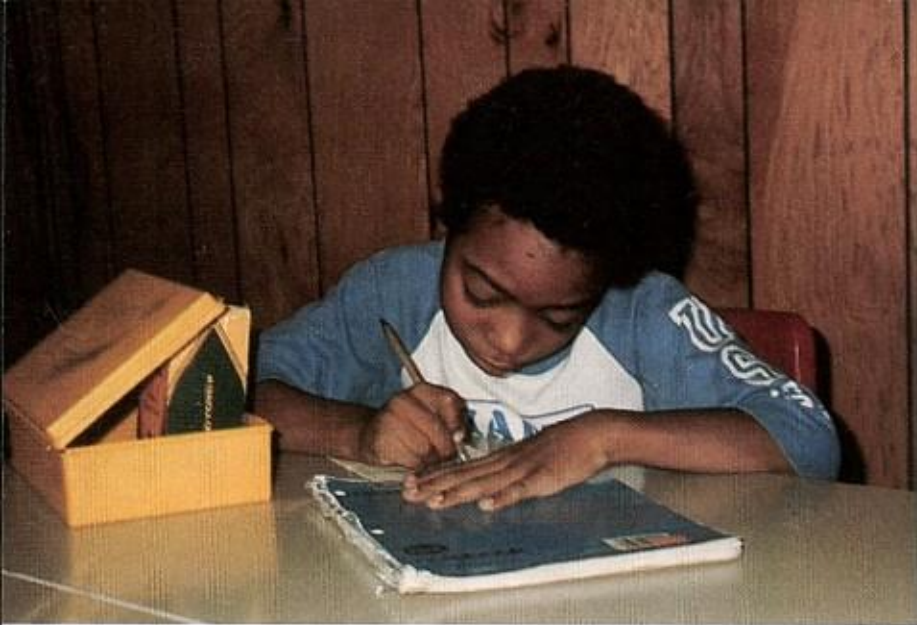

Left: Salvador Rodriguez and Andy McCasland have just heard the bell.

Below Right: Mrs. Bea Hutsell reads to her class often.

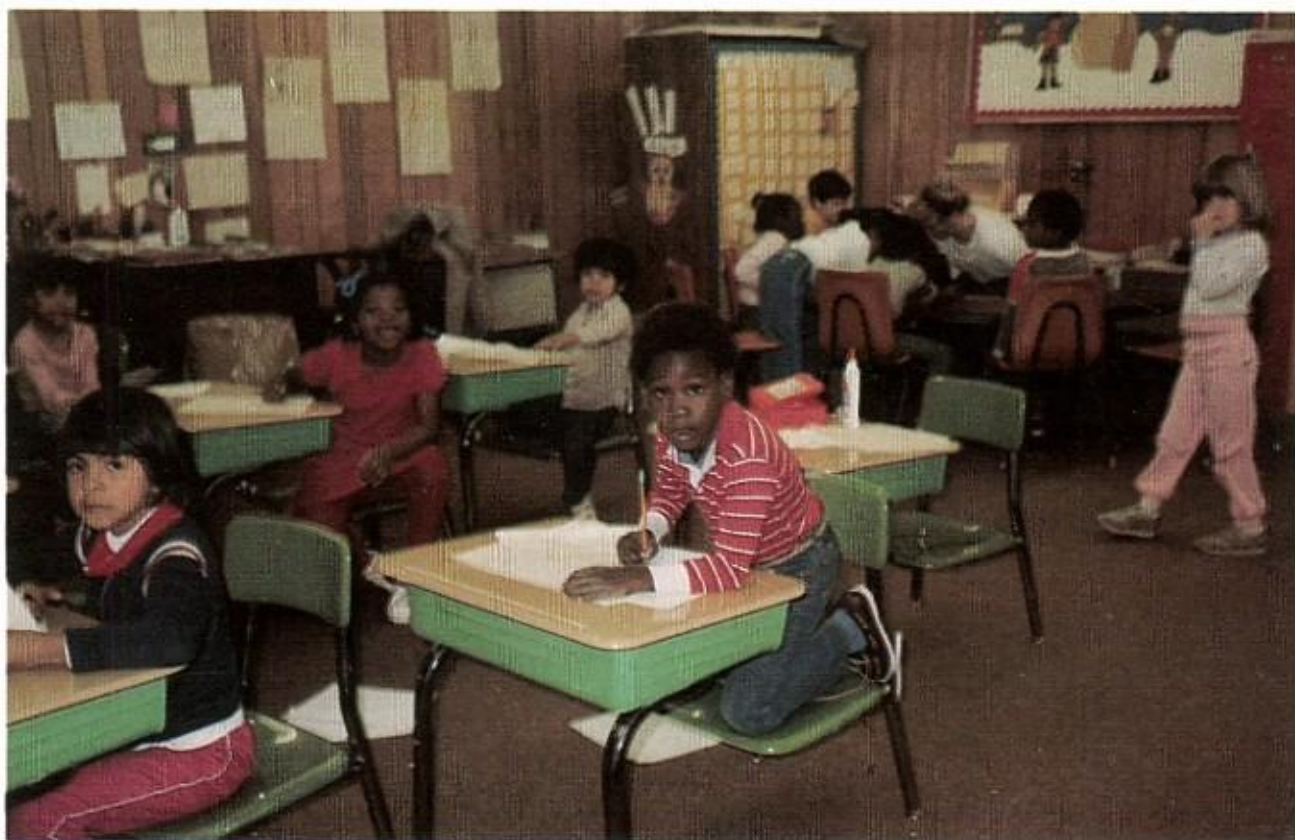

To err is human . . .

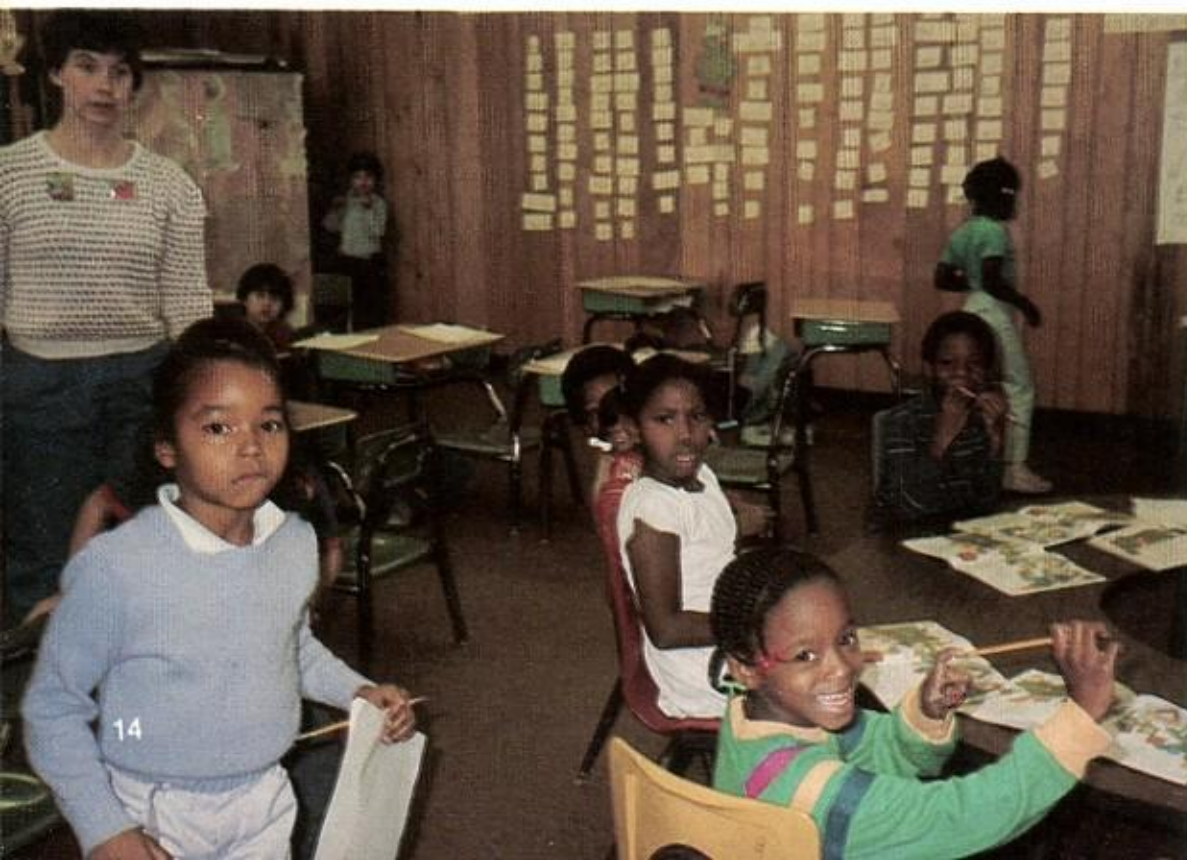

Below: Spelling assignments can be a chore.

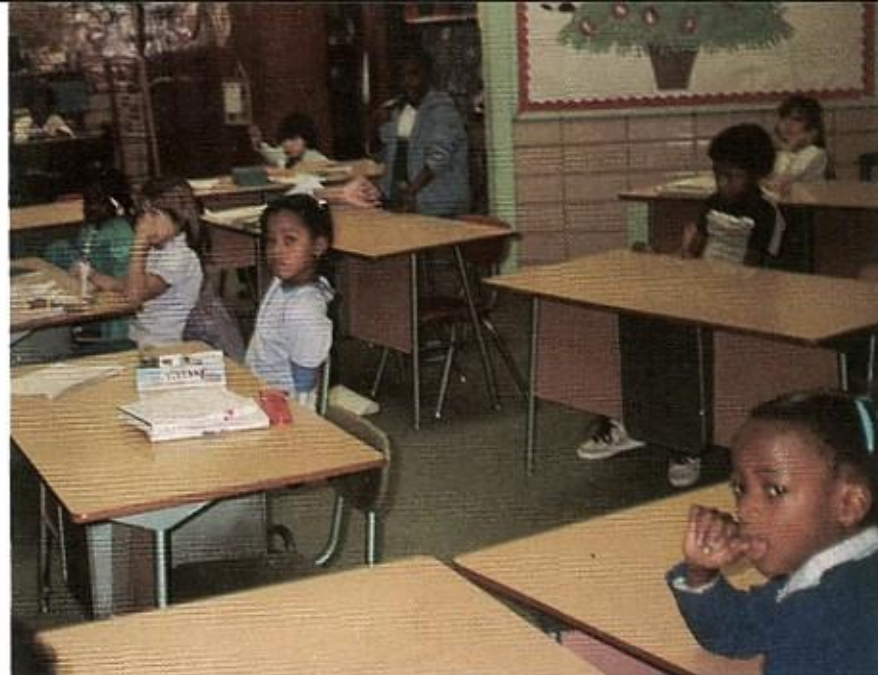

Snow was more than an abstract idea to students in 1985.

Someone forgot to tie his shoe.

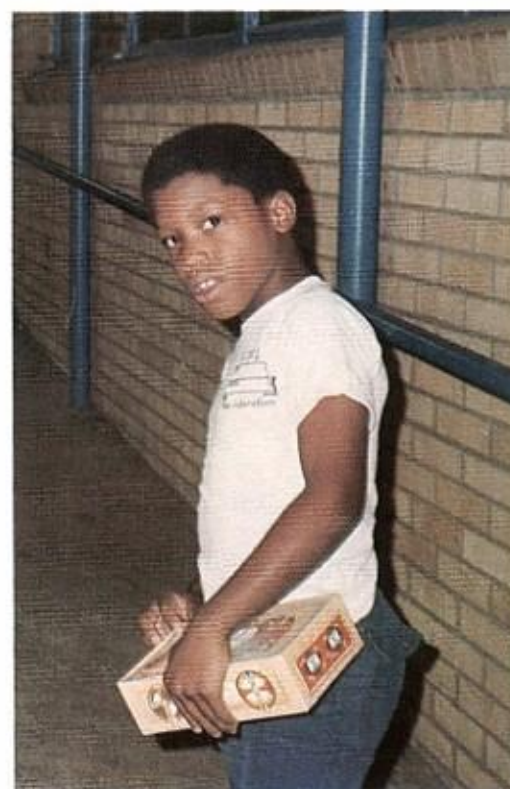

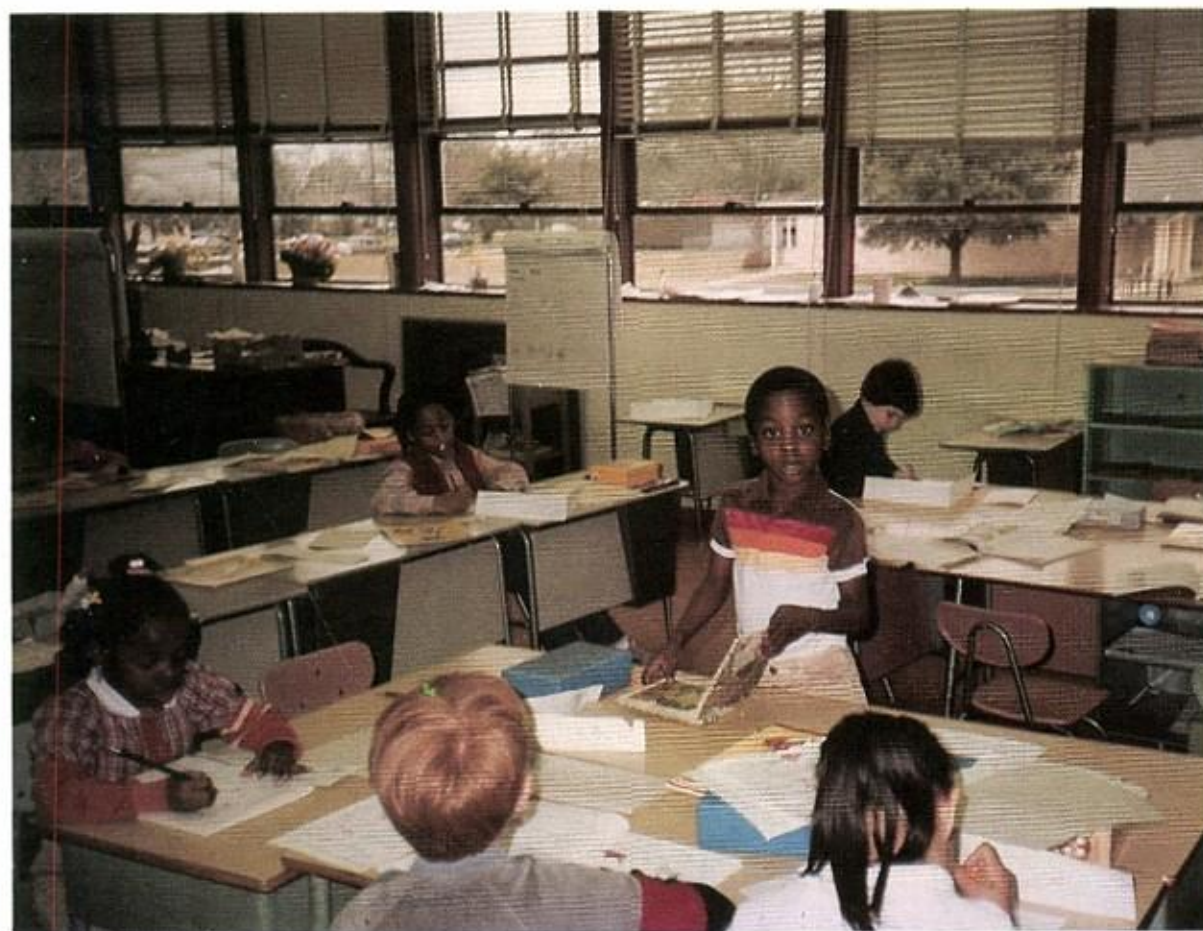

Above: Perfection requires deep thought.
Left: Reading opens a new world to children.

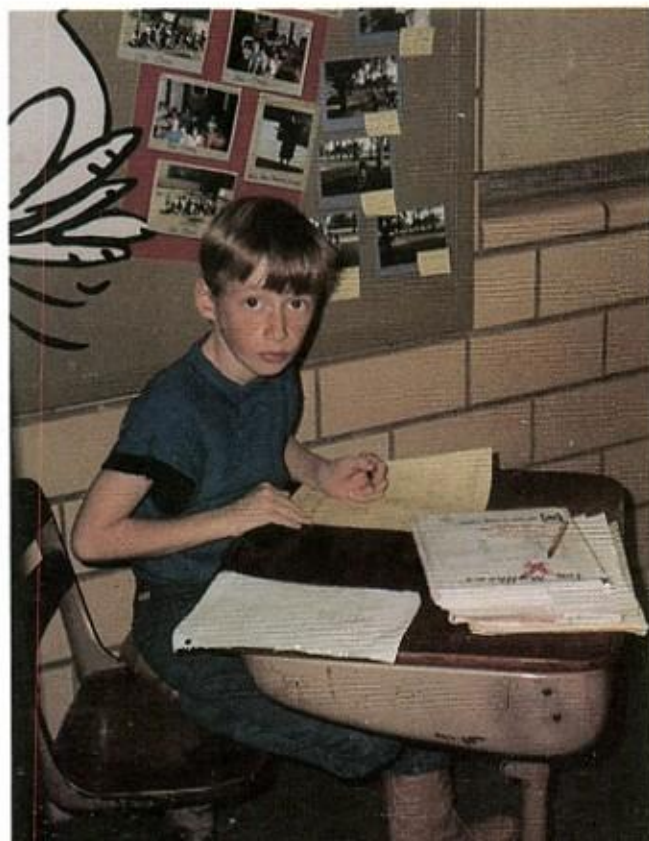

Spelling assignments offer challenges to primary students.

Children listen attentively to their instructor.

School boxes are necessary in the life of a RPS student.
Left: School is . . . work, work, and more work.

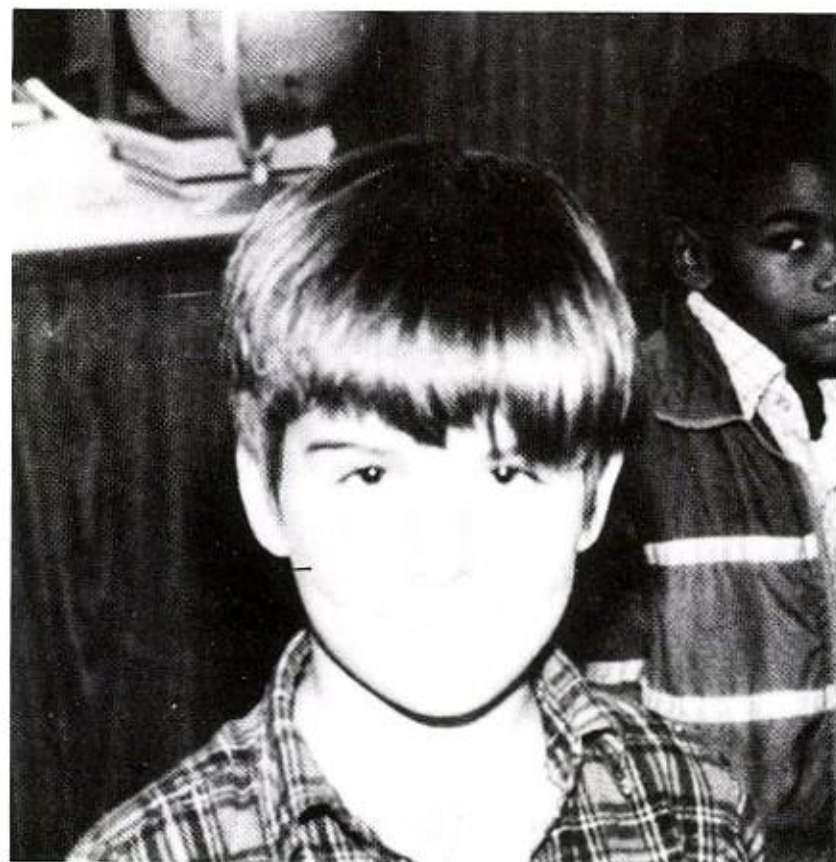

Young artist attempts new challenges.
Left: Freckles make life more interesting.

Its time to take a breather.

Right: What mischief can Darryl McGuire and Charles Citizen be thinking of?

Right: Mrs. Cecile Richardson reads instruction to Ricky Kelly, Lillienne Yo and Spencer Smith.

Wayne Jackson, Dwayne Augustine, Quotatio Dunn, Jessie Campos, and Paul Dahlke are ready for the entertainment to begin.

Below: James McCue, Quotatious Dunn, Chris Freeman, and Rochelle Lakes are fresh out of class, ready for messing around.

Below: Mrs. Alice Black has the projector ready to roll.

Left: Miss Kim Gray discussing the world situation with Kernis Thomas.

Above: Latoshica Davis "Pick me, Pick Me", Latoshica Davis seems to be thinking.
Left: Scott Rice knows that Mrs. Barnes is always willing to help.

SENIORS

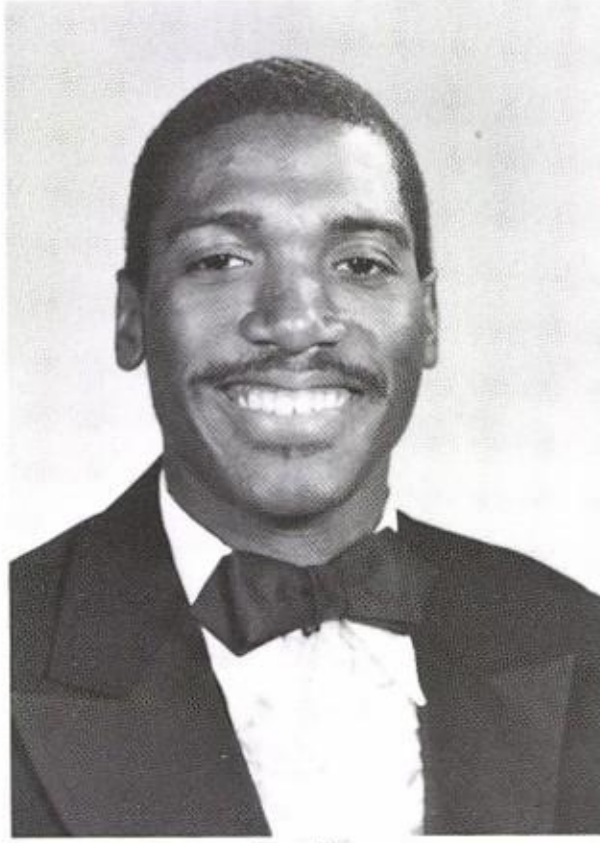

Chris Glover, President; Geretta Murrell, Secretary; Tim Torres, Vice-President

The Seniors of 1985 looked forward to graduation all year. They were the mainstay in almost all Royal activities — from the team sports to UIL, to band, to the fierce student-faculty ballgame. They look forward now to "life after graduation" and eagerly anticipate the satisfaction of independence.

GRADU

Ruben Munoz and Rachel Arizola share a hug and a kiss.

Carlos Zuniga, Jimmy Simpson, Durand Jones, and Mike Quast (having a tassel attack).

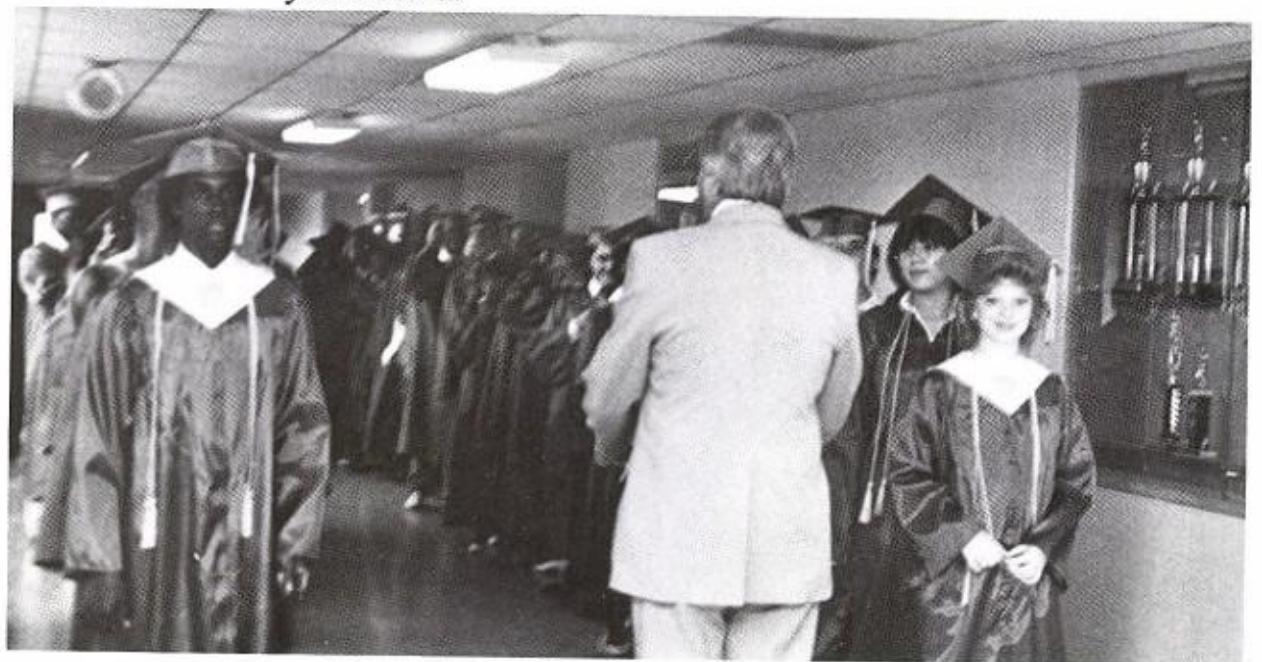

Kim Blackshear adjusts Annette Williams' cap while Tina Shalow rushes past to join the processional.

Chere Davis, Lizzie Williams, Retta Murrell, Annette Williams, Tish Conner, and Juanita Brown.

"But Mrs. Pattison, do you really think I'm ready for this?"

... and the processional begins.

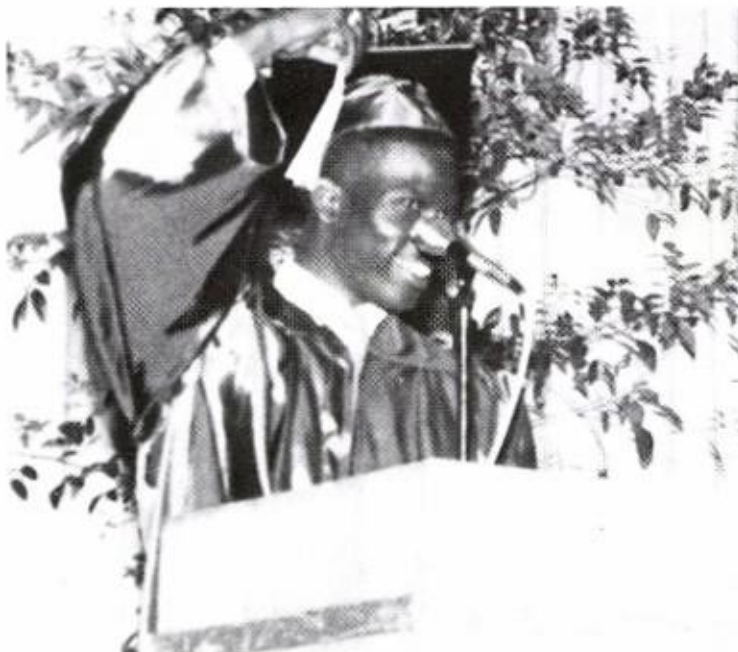

ACTION

Far Left: Willie Winn and Lynn Falls

Left: Valedictorian John Baker gives his famous "Well, here we are" speech.

Class President Chris Glover leads the graduates in the traditional turning of the tassels.

Honor graduate Tom Torres receives his diploma from Mr. Davis.

Salutatorian Karen Pattison accepts her diploma with a happy smile.

Valedictorian John Baker, Salutatorian Karen Pattison, and Honor Grads Sharon Kainer and Jo Ann Wisniski.
